SUFFERED FOR YEARS

Says Peruna Completely Restored Health.

MRS. CHAS. GROS LOUIS.

Mrs. Chas. Gros Louis, Indian Lorette, Quebec, Can., writes:

"For years I suffered from a disease that the doctors did not understand."

"One day I read in the paper about your excellent remedy, Peruna. I procured a bottle of it and took it according to directions. It was not long until I observed a change for the better."

"I can say that Peruna has cured me. I could not take any nourishment except milk."

"I will at all times say a good word for Peruna. I hold it in the highest esteem."

Not only women of rank and leisure praise Peruna, but the industrious, useful women engaged in manual toil would not be without Dr. Hartman's world-renowned remedy.

The doctor has prescribed it for many thousands of women every year and he never fails to receive a multitude of letters like the above, thanking him for his advice, and especially for the wonderful benefits received from Peruna.

Admiral Sebree and Mrs. Sebree entertained at luncheon on board the flagship Tennessee today, in honor of Governor and Mrs. Frear. The table in the Admiral's cabin was tastefully decorated with yellow flowers, while the beautiful silver service of the ship was shown off to great advantage. Besides the guests of honor those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, General and Mrs. McClellan, Captain and Mrs. Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Tauner, Admiral Barry, Captain Benson and Rogers, and Colonel Hawes.

Schaefer's Reception.

Rosebank, the home of Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, was the scene of much gaiety Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Gustave Edmund Schaefer made her bow to Honolulu society, at a reception which was given from 4 to 6. The drawing-room was profusely decorated in American beauty roses. Mrs. Schaefer and the fair young bride received amid a bower of green, the towering palms and feathery bamboo made a beautiful decoration, with touches of color here and there made by the exquisite roses. Mrs. F. A. Schaefer looked unusually well in a grey crepe de chine, with imported trimmings.

Mrs. Gustav Schaefer was a dream of loveliness in an empire princess of white satin heavily embroidered. Miss Irmgard Schaefer, Miss Elsa Schaefer, Mrs. Alfred Castle, and Miss Beatrice Castle assisted in entertaining the guests. Mrs. James Dougherty served the punch. Refreshments were served in the dining-room; this room was attractively decorated in exotica and maidenhair fern. A Hawaiian orchestra was stationed on the lanai behind a screen of palms. Many beautiful women were present, and chic and elaborate costumes were noticed. The Schaefer family are renowned for their hospitality, and this entertainment, given Wednesday afternoon, surpassed all former functions given at this beautiful home.

Governor and Mrs. Frear's Dinner.

Arcadia, the home of Governor and Mrs. Frear on Punahou street, was the setting for a charming dinner given in honor of Admiral and Mrs. Sebree, and Admiral Barry. The dinner was served at seven. The table was decorated with rare flowers and choice candelabra. Those present were Governor and Mrs. Frear, Admiral and Mrs. Sebree, Admiral Barry, Captain and Mrs. Rees, Captain Benson and General and Mrs. McClellan.

Van Rensselaer Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Rensselaer entertained at a beautifully appointed dinner Friday evening at the Moana Hotel. The table was decorated in pink. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Miss Kelly of Norfolk, and Capt. Gilmore of the U. S. S. Maryland.

A tennis club called the Neighborhood Tennis Club has been formed on Nob Hill. The courts are situated at the head of Victoria street. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: Mr. Mason Prosser, president; Mr. William Thompson, vice president; Mrs. E. M. Watson, secretary; Miss Ballentine, treasurer. The membership is limited to twenty people, living in that neighborhood. The opening of the tennis court was celebrated with a tea, which was given on the grounds last Saturday afternoon.

Lieut. Comdr. Olmsted entertained at dinner Thursday evening in the wardroom of the U. S. S. Tennessee. The table was tastefully decorated in purple asters. Among the dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mason Prosser, Miss Thatcher, Miss Arnold of San Francisco, and Miss Grow.

Tennis Society.

Interest in the tennis games at the Beretania courts this week has been keen, and both on Thursday and Friday there was an interested gallery of spectators present to cheer and "root" for their favorite players. Friday there was an unusually enthusiastic company present, among them being a number of Navy men, and several from the Army and Engineer Corps, the uniforms of the men and the light, airy gowns of the women adding a festive touch to the scene. The preference of the company seemed about evenly divided, and there was much applause for Henderson and Nicholson of the Navy when they made some brilliant play, and an equal hand-clapping and cheering for Gee and Roth when they showed their handiness with racquet and ball. Mr. Page acted as referee.

Among those noted at the games were Captain and Mrs. Low, Major Ray, Lieut. Comdr. Ziegmeier of the West Virginia, Mrs. Noonan, Miss Marion Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mrs. Baird of Hilo, Mrs. Jack Warren, Mrs. Edward Watson, Ensign and Mrs. Glassford, Mr. Calhoun, Mr. Wilhelm, Mr. Henry Dutton, Dr. and Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Gardner Wilder and her house-guest Miss Harmon of Michigan, Judge Sidney M. Ballou, Mr. Sutton, Mr. Werthmuller, Mr. Hoothe, Mrs. Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Livingstone, Mrs. Sam Baldwin, Mr. George Davies and party, and many others. There were a number of people watching the games from their motors, or carriages and several came over from Fort Shafter in the mule-drawn surreys. Major Dunning watched the games for a time on horseback, as did several others.

Lieut. Landerberger of the flagship Tennessee will be the host at a luncheon today at the Country Club, in honor of Miss Josephine McClellan. The other guests will be Lieut. Comdr. Mr. Sargent, Miss Kelly, Miss McClellan, Lieut. MacMillan, and Flag Lieut. Holmes.

Admiral Sebree and Mrs. Sebree will entertain in honor of the visiting foreign Captains at luncheon tomorrow on board the Tennessee. Besides the guests of honor, Captains Fitzherbert and Schroder, the guests will be Judge and Mrs. Ballou, Captain and Mrs. Rees, and Captains Mayo, Pond, and Benson.

Lieuts. Landerberger, Holmes, and MacMillan will act as hosts at a picnic tea to be given at Allan Herbert's place, Kailhi valley, tomorrow afternoon and evening. Among the guests who will be present are the Misses McClellan, Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Sargent, Miss Kelly, Miss Hatch, Miss Damon, and a few others of the younger society set.

"LEAK" IN WIRELESS; COURT OF INQUIRY

During the speed test of the Pacific fleet cruisers off Hawaii there was a "leak" in the Federal wireless system and certain figures regarding the test filtered into the hands of one of the local papers. In the eyes of the government this is a very serious offense, and as a result it is said that a Court of Inquiry is being held at the Naval Station to determine who the guilty operator is, and what the facts are. Manager Balch of the Wireless Company was among the witnesses today, and a close examination is being made of all operators handling government stuff.

SERVICES FOR FLEET FLAGSHIPS

The farewell services of the Seamen's Institute to the sailors of the Pacific fleet will be held tomorrow morning on board the flagship Tennessee at 11 o'clock.

This will wind up the long series of services held on board the various vessels and the entertainments given on shore to the boys. The officers of the fleet have expressed their appreciation of the manner in which the institute has worked for the welfare of the men under the direction of Superintendent F. E. Everton. The Rev. W. H. Bliss will officiate at tomorrow's services.

HAPPINESS SOLD FOR 25 CENTS A YEAR

Harmony Club Will Teach You the Value of a Smile and a Song in the Course of Your Everyday Life.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—What do we all want most in life?

"To be happy; just that and nothing more."

"Happiness means different things to different people. But whatever it means to us that is what we are living for."

These are questions and answers involving the basic principles of the Harmony Club, which sought incorporation yesterday in the Supreme Court. Justice Amend held over the application because of a technical flaw which may be easily corrected.

Edward H. Fallows, attorney for the State Comptroller in the collection of the Inheritance Tax, is the chief organizer of the club, which had its birth in March, began to attract notice in June and through the summer gained an enrolment in all the States. He was prompted to make people happy by organization in furtherance of the work of his father, Bishop Samuel Fallows of Chicago, founder of the institutional church and of the Emmanuel movement. Associated with Mr. Fallows as incorporators are Helen M. Folger, Charles B. Selover, Wynette Livingston Smith and Edwin Earle Purinton.

These are the objects of the club: To harmonize people with themselves, their surroundings and with one another.

To provide the efficient value of a smile and song in everyday life.

To establish the perfect unity of body, mind, heart and spirit.

To investigate, formulate and demonstrate the scientific laws of happiness.

To enunciate the principles of wholesome, triumphant, sincere living.

To present the discoveries of modern psychology in simple attractive guise.

To put those who want vital knowledge in touch with those who have it.

To maintain a brotherhood of individuals, where sympathy is the only bond.

To impart the secrets of self-help, as the highest form of altruism.

To promote free discussion of every subject that makes for clear understanding of life.

All Sorts of Devices Here.

The articles also provide for the manufacture of goods, garments, tools, implements, games and whatever articles of necessity or luxury may be desired for members; to conduct a publication office; to maintain schools, reading rooms and conduct lecture itineraries; to operate camps, colleges, hotels; to own restaurants, shops and stores, and to organize and control hospitals, clinics, dispensaries, health homes, sanatoria and kindred institutions.

Members are to be put in line for all this for twenty-five cents a year, which pays also for the club manual, "How to be Happy," to be had at the club headquarters, No. 30 Church street, where Miss Folger is in charge.

"You see us here very happy," Miss Folger said yesterday. "We are also very busy, for already thousands have joined our movement. We are all also much better in body for the work we are doing. As we say in our circular, every thought we entertain does something to the body. Fear spoils digestion, anger paralyzes the brain, jealousy disturbs the circulation, insincerity hinders breathing, cowardice unsettles the nerves, misunderstanding upsets the action of the heart. All this we eliminate by cultivating positive, hopeful, energizing thought. We wish simply to make people happy and keep happy ourselves in doing it."

Why You Are Unhappy. Editor Purinton in the current number of the club organ says: "The clue to happiness lies in learning how to feel the inwardness of things. Some of the false things are unnatural food that clogs the digestion, starves the nerves, clouds the brain, stiffens the joints; spurious emotion that impels us to make tragedies out of trifles; heirloom instruction that defies the majority, vague sermonizing that confuses religion with theology and makes heaven a posthumous hope instead of a present reality.

"This land and age are distinguished by their eagerness for new modes of better living. The methods have millions of adherents, but they conflict among themselves and need balance. We hope to establish a department store of self-help. To possess what we offer you will need very little money, but a vast amount of grit."

"Theology has taught us merely how to die and medicine has taught us merely how to recover. We hope to teach the art of being well without being worried over it. The one thing needful is a clearing house of thought, therapeutics and reform."

"In every opal many colors are blended. The blue of aspiration, the pink of health, the green of opulence and all the rainbow tints of experience combine to produce the gem of happiness. Health, prosperity, pleasure, work, freedom, altruism are primary elements of happiness. Our work is to put you in touch with all the best methods. This is a brotherhood of individuals, where the only pledge is to be sincere and the only obligation is to keep growing. Nothing binds us except a mutual desire for advancement."

Justice Amend held over the application because the paragraph relating to hospitals and kindred institutions make it necessary that consent be obtained from the State Board of Charities. This may be had by simple request.

KAMS TO PLAY PENNS SUNDAY

INT was decided this morning to have the Kamehameha baseball nine play the U. S. S. Pennsylvania tomorrow at the League grounds. The Kams were scheduled to play the West Virginia bunch, but it was found that five or six of the W. V.s would be required to play in the All-Fleet team, and that it would be too much to ask them to play two games during the same afternoon.

Notwithstanding the fact that rumors are going around to the effect that the games will not be played tomorrow at the League grounds, they will be played for sure, and should prove to be the best games of the season.

The first game will start at 1:30 o'clock, and the second at 3 p. m. A big crowd is expected to attend, although the counter attraction at the Athletic Park will draw a large attendance.

SENTENCE REDUCED

Judge De Bolt this morning granted a mitigation of sentence in the case of Fukikawa, who was sentenced in the District Court to nine months' imprisonment on conviction of being unlawfully on the Judd premises.

It developed that the Japanese is a man of considerable industry, and Judge De Bolt decided that the sentence imposed was too severe, and accordingly reduced it to thirty days' imprisonment.
